PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, each year during the month of October our nation observes a week of fire safety at the direction of our President, and,

WHEREAS, I am of the opinion we as a state should join with others dedicated to the prevention of fires, and

WHEREAS, it is the duty of every citizen to do their utmost to prevent fires which result in loss of life and property not only during this week of proclaimed observation but throughout the entire year,

NOW THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, do proclaim the week of October 5-11, 1969, as in South Dakota and urge that each citizen and community dedicate this week as a start of a year program whereby every effort will be made to prevent fires through the observance of fire safety practices, through education in our schools, churches, and civic group meetings. To enlist the assistance of the press, radio, and television during the year to carry the messages of fire and life safety.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 19th day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.
